

The native language of Minorca is Catalan, spoken here since the 13th century, when the Balearic Islands became part of the Catalan-Aragonese Crown.

It is often said that you don't really know a culture until you know its language. So we hope that this short list of Catalan words and expressions will be of interest and will add yet another aspect of Minorca for you to enjoy.

For years the use of Catalan has been encouraged in all fields of the island's social life, ranging from health and education to the media and shops and businesses, and of course, including our tourists.

So we hope that while you're here, you will have a go and try out some of the most common words in our language: I'm sure you'll find them useful in making yourself understood.

Enjoy your stay in Minorca!
